Slick Cash Loan is an online loan-matching service that connects borrowers with a network of third-party lenders across the United States. They are not a direct lender; instead, they help users find fast loan options such as personal loans, installment loans, payday-style cash advances, and no-credit-check loans. Their platform is designed for quick approvals, often on the same day, and they accept applicants with poor or limited credit as long as they meet basic income and bank-account requirements. Slick Cash Loan also provides helpful tools like a loan calculator, and their business operates fully online from Glendale,
